Intern at Siahaan Gea Attorneys at Law

I am responsible for preparing the first drafts of legal documents, including statements of claim, exceptions, accusations, and contract reviews. These drafts are then handed over to the associates for review and feedback before being sent to the partners. Additionally, I am assigned to attend verification meetings related to PKPU (Concordat Inter Creditor Agreement) when the associate is unavailable. I am tasked with creating reports based on these meetings to be shared with the client. I am also assigned to handle paralegal matters at the court, such as obtaining copies of judgments or providing case reports to clients. Furthermore, I consistently assist in conducting legal research to support associates in compiling case documents.
